DETAILED ACTION

This office action is in response to application filed on October 31, 2001. Original application contained Claims 1-19. Therefore, Claims 1-19 are pending for further consideration.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Teal (U. S. Patent 6,447,651).

1. Regarding Claim 1 teal teaches and describes a method of analyzing frames at a node of a network by an intrusion prevention system executed by the node (Fig.1), comprising:
reading the frame by the intrusion prevention system (col.4 line 16 to line 28);

Art Unit: 2131

comparing the frame with a machine-readable signature file (col.4 line 29 to line 40);
determining the frame has a frame signature that corresponds with the machine-readable signature file (col.4 line 41 to line 47); and determining the machine-readable signature file has an associated squelch comprising a squelch threshold and a squelch period (col.4 line 48 to col.5 line 8).

2. Regarding Claim 10 Teal teaches and describes a computer-readable medium having stored thereon a set of instructions to be executed, the set of instructions, when executed by a processor, cause the processor to perform a computer method (Fig. 1) of:

reading a frame (col.4 line 16 to line 28);
comparing the frame with a machine-readable signature file (col.4 line 29 to line 40);
determining the frame has a frame signature that corresponds with the machine-readable signature file (col.4 line 41 to line 47); and determining the machine-readable signature file has an associated squelch comprising a squelch threshold and a squelch period (col.4 line 48 to col.5 line 8).

3. Claims 2-4, 7-8, and 11 are rejected applied as above rejecting claims 1, and 10.

Furthermore, Teal Teaches and describes a system and method, further comprising

As per Claim 2 disabling execution of a directive of the machine-readable signature file if a frame counter exceeds the squelch threshold (col.5 line 9 to line 35, col.5 line 45 to line 51).

Art Unit: 2131

As per Claim 3 incrementing a frame counter upon determination that the frame signature corresponds with the machine-readable signature (col.45 line 45 to line 60).

As per Claim 4 determining whether the squelch period has elapsed (col.5 line 35 to line 51).

As per Claim 7 executing a directive of the machine-readable signature file upon determination that the squelch threshold has not been exceeded (col.4 line 28 to line 58).

As per Claim 8 suppressing execution of a directive of the signature file upon determination that the squelch threshold has been exceeded (col.5line 35 to line 60, and col. 4 line 16 to line 40).

As per Claim 11 a set of instruction that, when executed by the processor, cause the processor to perform a computer method of periodically incrementing a squelch period timer assigned to the machine-readable signature file (col.4 line 48 to col.5 line 60).

4. Claims 5, 6, 9,12 are rejected applied as above rejecting claims 3, 4, 8, and 11.

Furthermore, Teal Teaches and describes a system and method, further comprising

As per Claim 5 initiating a new squelch period upon determining the squelch period has elapsed (col.5 line 35 to line 60).

As per Claim 6 determining if the squelch threshold has been exceed by the frame counter (col.4line 16 to line 40).

Art Unit: 2131

As per Claim 9 wherein suppressing execution of a directive of the signature file further comprises suppressing execution of report generation associated with the determination that the frame signature corresponds with the machine-readable signature file (col.5 line 9 to line 22).

As per Claim 12 determining if the squelch period timer equals or exceed the squelch period (col.5 line 35 to line 51).

5. Claims 13-19 are rejected applied as above rejecting claim 21. Furthermore, Teal Teaches and describes a system and method, further comprising a set of instructions that, when executed by the processor, cause the processor to perform a computer method of

As per Claim 13 re-initiating the squelch period timer upon determination that the squelch period timer equals or exceeds the squelch period; and incrementing a frame counter upon determining the frame signature corresponds with the machine-readable signature file (col.5 line 9 to line 60).

As per Claim 14 determining if a frame counter exceeds the squelch threshold (col.5 line 9 to line 35, col.5line 45 to line 51).

As per Claim 15 suppressing execution of a directive of the signature file upon determination that the squelch threshold has been exceeded by the frame counter (col.4line 16 to line 40).

As per Claim 16 executing a directive of the signature file upon determination that the squelch threshold has not been exceeded by the frame counter (col.4 line 28 to line 58).

Art Unit: 2131

As per Claim 17 suppressing execution of a directive further comprises suppressing execution of a report generation associated with the determination that the frame signature corresponds with the machine-readable signature file (col.5 line 9 to line 22).

As per Claim 18-19 determining if: the squelch is enabled, the squelch is disabled (col.4 line 48 to col.5 line 60).
